

LÜM

An interactive globe displays sustainable consumption levels over varying metrics in an intuitive and informational format

LÜM is an accessible data hub, which elegantly displays statistical summaries of sustainability metrics.

Our solution seeks to arm sustainably oriented entities and the general public alike with the statistics they need to efficiently drive change. By empowering individuals with a research launch pad, we can harmonize sustainability with culture and create a better world

